Maitrapushpa man on Rs 5/- per mensem

Thus the total cost comes to Rs. 26/- 20.

The Deputy Commr reports that the present pay of the temple servants is quite inadequate to eke out their livelihood in such a deserted place as the Ghate and strongly recommends that the small increase of one Rupee each may be sanctioned from the temple funds. It is further reported that the temple was inspected more than once, twice, that the temple premises have been kept thoroughly clean and that the temple servants richly deserve the increment.

A Hunter is respectfully invited to another Office note below. The temple has sufficient funds to bear the small cost of Rs. 6 per mensem now recommended.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith Doddaballapur Taluk Amildar's Report No 655, dated 12th March 1908, recommending an increase of one rupee to each of the servants of the Sri Ghate Subramanyaswami temple, and to state that under the circumstances explained by the Amildar, I strongly recommend the increase of pay as suggested to the temple servants. The income of

of the temple being large admits of this small increment, and the financial effect of this would be an increase of only 6 Rupees on the expenditure side. I have seen the place more than twice and the temple premises have been kept thoroughly clean. The servants richly deserve the increment
